AN ACT to provide for the sale and promotion of agricultural products and their derivatives and the allocation of taxes, assessments and other funds for such purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the limitation on the sale of wine established in § 57-3-207(f)(3), a winery selling the wine it produces which contains a minimum of fifty percent (50%) wine made from Tennessee grapes may make such sales on its premises without restriction on the number of gallons sold.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
